LIFE & CAREER CLARITY

Life & Career Direction • Confidence • Goal Setting • Accountability

Prajakta Pawar
Life & Career Clarity Coach

Helping individuals move from confusion to clarity, set meaningful goals, build confidence, and take practical steps toward personal and professional growth.

What I Help With

Life & Career Clarity	Clarifying priorities, identifying what matters, and creating a practical direction for the next step.
Career Guidance & Transition	Exploring career options, transitions, professional goals, and structured next steps.
Confidence, Goals & Accountability	Turning intentions into realistic goals, action plans, regular reflection, and consistent progress.

My Coaching Approach

My approach is practical, structured, and action-oriented. Each conversation is designed to help you understand where you are, define where you want to go, identify realistic options, and leave with clear next steps. I focus on thoughtful questioning, goal setting, accountability, and progress review rather than giving one-size-fits-all advice.

A Simple 4-Step Journey

Who These Sessions Are For

• Professionals who feel stuck or uncertain about their next career step

• People considering a career transition or wanting a clearer professional direction

• Individuals working toward personal or professional goals who want structure and accountability

• Anyone looking for a practical, supportive conversation to turn uncertainty into an action plan

What You Can Expect

A focused, respectful conversation; clear questions; practical reflection; a defined outcome for the session; and actionable next steps. The goal is not to overwhelm you with advice, but to help you identify what matters and decide what you can do next.
