About me

A seasoned Executive & Life Coach (ICF-PCC), Military Veteran (Colonel, Retd.), and Senior Management Professional in the Education Sector, I specialize in leadership development, performance coaching, and personal transformation. With over 24 years as a military officer in the Indian Army, followed by my current executive role as Director, in charge of a vast network of schools and colleges, I have firsthand experience in high-stakes leadership, discipline-driven growth, and organizational transformation. With a strong background in strategic leadership, discipline, resilience, and executive decision-making, I help professionals, executives, and teams develop confidence, resilience, and peak performance strategies to excel in their careers and personal lives. My proven coaching credentials from the International Coaching Federation, combined with years of my professional experience in the Army and the Education sector, makes me uniquely qualified to help professionals overcome challenges, achieve their goals, and thrive in both personal and professional arenas.
